

BREAKIN' UP :: ANDY STANLEY

INTRODUCTION

What kind of person does God use? As you read through the Bible it becomes clear that God doesn't usually use the smartest or the most sophisticated person. He doesn't often use someone who has all the answers or who knows what he is doing. But as we examine the story of Moses it will become clear the one characteristic that God does use, and how He can leverage this quality in you.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Exodus 3:1-11. Why do people tend to think that God can't use them? What are the excuses they give for not making themselves available?
2. Read Exodus 3:12-14. What does God give to those who make themselves available (i.e. "I will be with you," v. 12)?
3. When have you felt God use you?
4. How have you felt God use this church in your life? How have you seen God use this church in the lives of others?
5. What does it take (time, talents and resources) to make these aspects of church happen?
6. In what volunteer capacity do you plan to make yourself available for God to use this coming year?

THINK ABOUT IT

Imagine a year from now when Browns Bridge, Buckhead and North Point will all be up and running. What will it take to make this happen? Make a list of the results that you expect to see a year from now in both your life and in the lives of others. How will things be different?

WHAT WILL YOU DO?
