

PART 3: Biggest Losers

INTRODUCTION

Not only did Jesus teach this principle of giving life away, he modeled it as well. He said, “Even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Jesus poured into those who followed him, and he asks the same of us. He was about to launch a worldwide movement called the church.

Jesus has invited you the way he invited those closest to him. You can’t follow him as a spectator. You have to participate. You have to get involved.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Talk about a time when you were involved in a project or an effort greater than yourself. How did it make you feel?
2. What are some ways people look for meaning and purpose in life? How are some of those ways healthy? How are some unhealthy?
3. Read Mark 10:43-45. Where have you seen others “lord their authority” over others? What are the most powerful differences between how Jesus ask his followers to lead?
4. Who is someone in your spiritual life who took what was in his or her cup and poured it into you?
5. How has your life or the life of someone you know been influenced by volunteers who serve on Sunday mornings?
6. In what areas are you interested in serving on Sunday mornings? What interests you about those areas?

MOVING FORWARD

There are people out there who need your talents and experience. They need your time. And you need to pour yourself into others because you can’t grow when you’re full.

Visit northpoint.org/choose. Select the top two places you’d like to serve. We’ll connect you with the people who need what you have to offer.

CHANGING YOUR MIND

“For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
