

Christmas:

IT'S ALL GOOD

Week 2: Leveling the Playing Field

The original message of Jesus was so compelling that everyone who heard it wanted it to be true. Maybe the version you've heard isn't as captivating. If Jesus truly came with an invitation that left no one out, wouldn't you believe it was really good news?

Discussion Questions

1. When asked, "Do you want the good news or the bad news first," which do you pick? Why?
2. Growing up, when you heard the term sin, what came to mind?
3. Read Luke 5:8. Why was Peter "not ok" with himself?
4. When did it first dawn on you that you needed a Savior?
5. Read Romans 3:23-24.
 - What does Paul say is the result of not living up to the glory of God?
 - Who does this affect?
 - How is this good news?
6. How do you feel about the fact that Jesus leveled the playing field?

Changing Your Mind

The good news becomes good when we recognize we're not all that good. This is the invitation Jesus gives everyone because He came and leveled the playing field. We all have the same opportunity to reclaim peace with God. Maybe today is the day you receive that invitation.
