

Heroes 1 :: X-Ray Vision :: Andy Stanley

INTRODUCTION

There is something in each of us that is drawn to the hero. We admire his clarity of vision in the face of uncertainty. We applaud her quick action while others stand paralyzed on the sidelines. We stand back in awe of the hero, but the reality is that each of us will be presented with the opportunity to be a hero. Each of us will have defining moments in our lives where we will be called upon to act heroically on behalf of someone. Will you be ready? Will you be a hero?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When you were growing up, what heroes did you pretend to be? Why did you want to be like them?
2. Who are some of your heroes now? Why do you admire them?
3. Can you think of a situation where someone you know or someone in history saw clearly and was compelled to act?
4. Has there been a time in your life when you saw clearly and were compelled to act? What happened?
5. Has there been a time in your life when you were uncertain and you did not act? Describe the situation.
6. Are you presently faced with the opportunity to be a hero? What will you do?

THINK ABOUT IT

What will be the next chapter in the story of your life? Think of a situation where you have the opportunity to be a hero. How will the story turn out if you do not act?

WHAT WILL YOU DO?
