

PART 12: THE PILATE CHRONICLES

INTRODUCTION

At Passover, Jesus gathered his followers and spelled out a new relational arrangement between God and mankind: “As I have loved you, so you must love one another.” But Jesus wasn’t celebratory. He seemed troubled. Initiating this new covenant with God would require sacrifice. What came next would confuse his followers and send them scattering.

NINETY EXTRA

Did you check out this week’s audio journey? If so, here are some icebreakers related to what you heard:

1. Did you watch Justice, the video from The Bible Project? If so, what were your thoughts?
2. Take a minute to watch the short video excerpt at 90.today/content/drift. Two whom do you need to be a better neighbor?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Mark 14:61–65. What implications did Jesus’ answer to the Sanhedrin’s question have for the old covenant? Why do you think they responded so violently to his words?
2. Read John 19:10–12. What do these two verses reveal about the nature of power? Why does Jesus seem to have greater authority than Pilate even though he’s in a position of weakness?
3. In John 18:31, Jesus told Pontius Pilate, “My kingdom is not of this world.” What are some ways Jesus’ kingdom operated differently than the empire Pilate served? What are some ways that Jesus’ kingdom continues to defy the assumptions of our modern world?*
4. Throughout the story, we watch Jesus surrender: he didn’t fight in the garden, he was silent when the Pharisees questioned him, and he didn’t defend himself to Pilate. How hard is giving up control for you? What keeps you from trusting God and surrendering more to him?
5. Jesus’ actions in his final days were unexpected and hard to understand for his followers. Have you ever expected God to do something but he hasn’t? How did this affect your belief in him?
6. During the message, Andy said, “When Jesus died, there were no Christians. There was no dream to keep alive. There was no movement to keep moving.” The crucifixion surprised even his closest followers. In what ways does Jesus continue to defy our expectations of him? Does that ever make it difficult for you to follow him?

MOVING FORWARD

After the crucifixion, even Jesus’ closest followers expected him to do what dead people usually do: stay dead. They had no idea the next few hours would change the course of history. For what the Pharisees and Pontius Pilate intended as an end, was just the beginning of something new.
