

THE WAY THINGS NEVER WERE* :: JEFF HENDERSON

INTRODUCTION

No one enjoys moving--packing up your belongings, transporting all the stuff you've accumulated over the years, and living in chaos while you transition to a new location. But you can't stay where you are forever, no matter how safe and comfortable it is. As a Christian, God beckons you to follow, and following means moving. So as Buckhead Church moves to a new location, it is important to stop and focus on where God is leading.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How did you hear about Buckhead Church? Describe the first time you attended a service.
2. How has God impacted you and your family through Buckhead Church?
3. Read Matthew 14:22-33. Peter stepped out of the boat at the call of his Savior. His walking on water illustrated what God can do when we follow in faith. If he could make a man walk on water, what could God do through a whole church that is following after him?
4. What part will you play as Buckhead Church reopens its doors? Specifically, now that there will be empty seats, who will you invite to a service?
5. When the building opens, where can you plug in and serve? How can you be a part of creating environments for the new people coming in?
6. What excites you about the reopening of Buckhead Church?

THINK ABOUT IT

Imagine where we could be in ten years. Do you believe that it is possible that we could win this community for Christ? And by reaching the 300,000 unchurched in our community, could this be a tipping point where the gospel spreads through this entire city in a fresh way? Could what we do impact communities around the country and literally around the world? What are the possibilities?

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

Will you commit to praying for Buckhead Church, and the people who have yet to attend, everyday until the doors open?

CHANGING YOUR MIND

"Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus... Matthew 14:29
