

NEED:

- Scissors
- Glue
- Print outs of 2 pages

INSTRUCTIONS TO ASSEMBLE
ADVENT TREE:

1. Cut out 3 sides of each burlap numbered box along pink dotted lines. Left, right and bottom - 3 sides only. Leave top in tact.
2. Apply glue to glue area on 2nd page.
3. Line up both sheets' edges with the tree page on top and press together.
4. Allow sheets to dry.
5. With the tree page stacked on top of the text page, follow the edge of the tree with the scissors and cut through both pages to tree shape.

HOW TO USE
ADVENT TREE:

- For each day lift the numbered box that matches the current date.
- Follow the instructions Below the tab.

GLUE AREA

APPLY GLUE IN GRAY AREA ONLY

Cuddle on the couch and watch a Christmas movie.

Ask: What's your favorite childhood Christmas memory?

Have a picnic dinner with Christmas music playing.

Feliz Navidad! Have Mexican food for dinner.

It's the 5th. Go buy each other a stocking stuffer for $5.

Make a snowman out of Rice Krispies Treats.

Cut out enough paper snowflakes to fill up a drawer or a small space for your spouse to discover.

Knock out your shopping list together.

Find a way to serve others today.

It's Christmas shapes pancake night—don't forget the syrup!

Buy an ornament together to remember 2012.

It's tacky Christmas sweater photo day--hang it on the fridge.

Make sure you're standing under the mistletoe A LOT!

It's hot chocolate Sunday-top it off with your fav sundae treats.

Stay in your pjs all morning...or stay out of them!

Give your spouse a compliment for each year you've been married.

Leave a love note in the Christmas tree for your spouse to find.

See who can lick the stripes off a candy cane the fastest.

Tell each other: All I want for Christmas is...

Ask your spouse what you can do to help them today... and then DO IT!

Grab a hot drink and drive around looking at Christmas lights!

Re-create an element of your first Christmas together.

List the top 3 things you're grateful for in your spouse.

Place a star on your tree after reading Matthew 2:1-12.

Find some quiet time today to pray for each other and thank God for the gift of his Son.